

The 1957
Scroll

Introduction

The SCROLL STAFF of Howland High School with the Senior Class of 1957 presents this book to you. In it we have tried to capture the highlights of this year by pictures of the many activities which occurred.
We hope that as you leaf
through each exciting page, you will recall many of the events which have gone on at Howland.

Enjoy this book because it was written and put together especially for YOU!

Our Superintendent

To you, Mr. Lemasters, the 1957 Scroll is dedicated.

We, as graduating Seniors, have the privilege of being the first class at Howland to go through twelve years of school with you as our guide. Your patience with us has given us the strength to continue in the right way by ourselves. Through your efforts, we have a very competent teaching staff that has contributed their knowledge and time with us to rate our high school as one of the finest.

For these and many more reasons, we dedicate our Scroll to you, thereby hoping to express, in a small way, our gratitude for the guidance you have given us.

Board of Education

Under the leadership of Mr. G. Fred Shafer, president, the Board of Education takes care of financial situations which arise each year. At present their largest project is the addition of a new junior high section to the present high school.

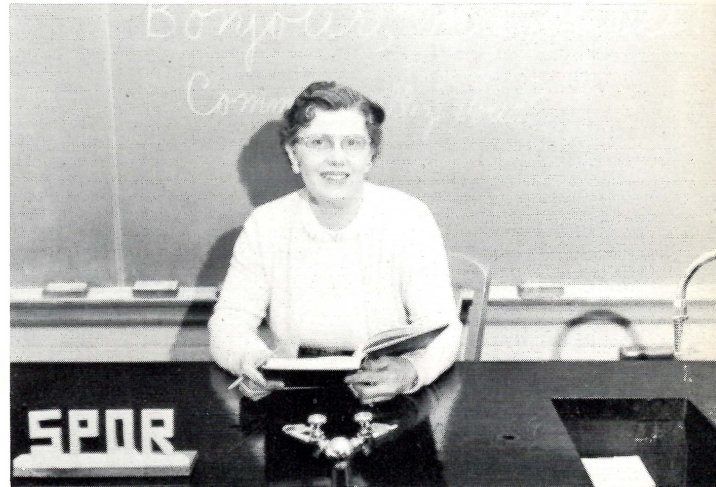

These people have worked hard for our school, and we all appreciate their many efforts.

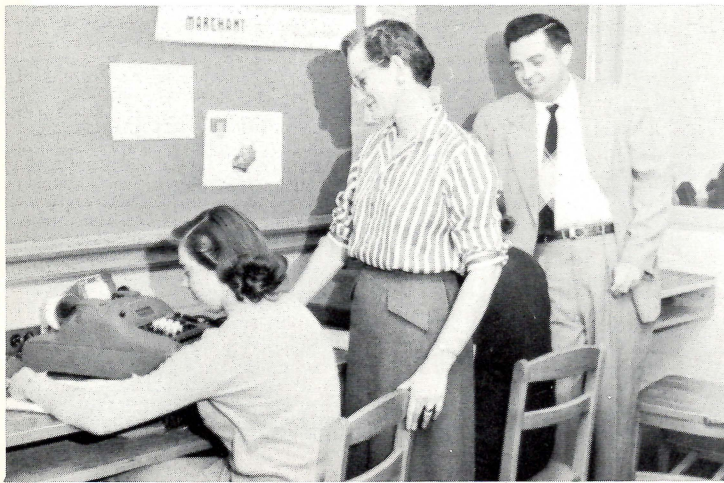

Mr. Melvin Seeloff, Mr. G. Fred Shafer, Mr. H. C. Mines, Mr. A. O. Lemasters, Mrs. Claire Humason, and Mr. John Brady. Absent: Mr. Clifford Berry.

Sponsors

To our sponsors, Mrs. Husher, Mrs. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Reiser, and Mr. Wilms, we would like to express our gratitude. They have helped us through the most trying year of our schooling and have listened to our compliments and complaints with a ready smile and a helping hand. We know that when we think back to our Howland days, we will always remember these four wonderful people.

Mrs. Reiser, Mr. Wilms, Mrs. Hotchkiss, and Mrs. Husher.

Operetta - - - - Miss Starlight

Drew Crane, an orphan raised by his rich and rather snobbish Aunt Rhoda, was presented with the ultimatum that he must either marry the girl of his aunt's choice by the time he is 22 or lose his inheritance from his father's pickle factory. His aunt had picked Carlotta Beard for him, but Carlotta was in love with Franklin Sanderson, manager of the hotel where everyone was visiting; and Drew was in love with the hotel stenographer, Flo Randolph. To complicate matters still further, Franklin's mother had promised him to Sadie Sutton, a village maiden.

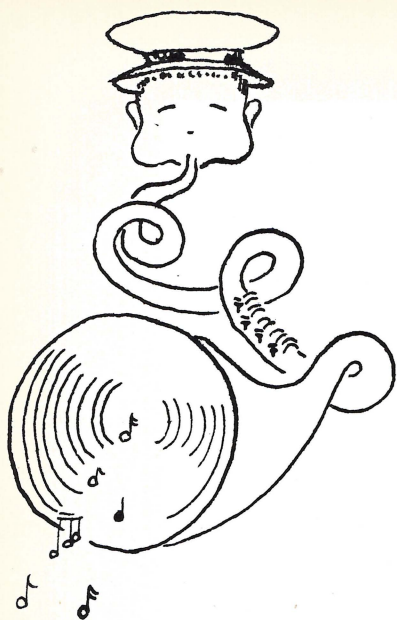

At this time, Miss Venus, the Goddess of Love and Beauty appears. She is the perfect girl, who knows nothing but the truth; and her candor is sometimes alarming to the mortals. She succeeds in adjusting the many love affairs so that everyone ends up with the right person.

Miss Venus, or "Miss Starlight", as Drew called her, existed only in his imagination; for as "Miss Starlight" said: "The perfect person exists only through the eyes of true love."

Mrs. Polley was the director, assisted by Miss Lydia Zahariou.

The Howland High Sch

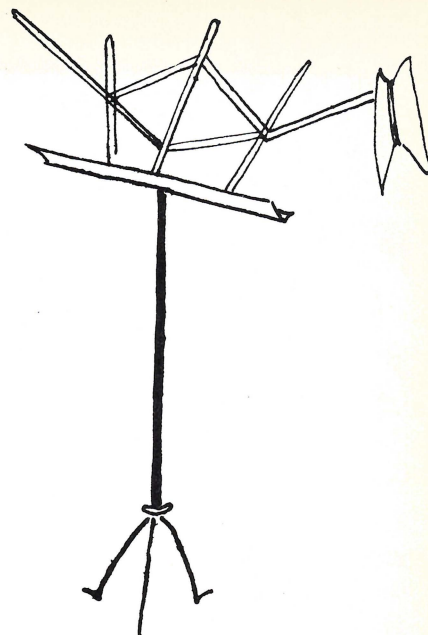

The Senior Band, consisting of almost seventy members, gives concerts throughout the year and provides music for many school assemblies. In the summer and fall, they participate in many parades and firemen's activities; and in the spring, they attend several contests for both soloists and the entire band.

School Band

This year the band, under the direction of Mr. Alexander, received a rating of I at the district contest. This entitles them to compete in the State competition in Columbus. We know that they will bring back splendid results as they did last year.

Majorettes

These girls who lead the band in all its parades do a fine job of strutting, under Miss William's guidance. They have often been seen at band concerts and basketball games where they do their routines. The girls are Sandy Patterson, Jackie White, Patty Mundorf, and Karen Hermison.

Dance Band

This group, reorganized this year, has played for several dances at other schools as well as the operetta at Howland. It is much in demand, especially for formal dances. Ronnie Hronchek is maestro of the group.

Art Tracy, Jim Dillon, Brenda Diehl, Al Hreno, Bob Casagrande, Ron Hronchek, Dick Lab, Bev Whitmore, Sandra Schwab, Bob Abruzzi, Phoebe Oliphant.

Eighth Grade Chorus

Have you heard the sound of beautifully blended voices coming from the music room in the afternoon? That's the eighth grade chorus, our future A Cappella, practicing. Directed by Mrs. Polley, this group shows much talent in vocal gymnastics.

Seventh Grade Chorus

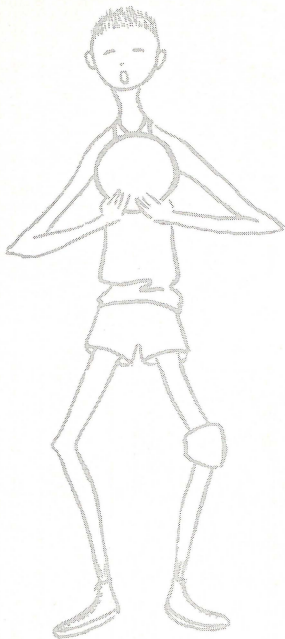

This group, organized for those seventh graders who especially like to sing, practices once each week and performs at several concerts during the year.

Reserve Team

Through the experience they gathered this year, we hope to have an up-and-coming varsity team next year. These boys represent the stepping stone to tournament basketball. Their efforts in the game of good sportsmanship and fair play will influence their future games.

Our reserves played hard and well during the past year, and everyone is proud of them.

Eighth Grade

The eighth grade team, composed of many promising young players, did very well for itself this year, in addition to gaining much valuable experience in team spirit and sportsmanship. We hope to hear more about these boys in the future.

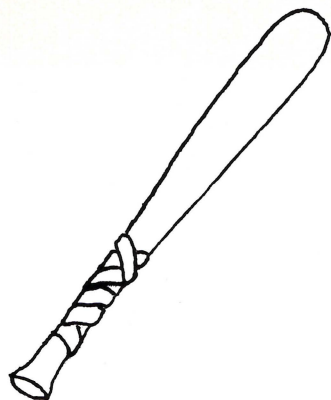

Sue Vanelli, Jeanine Husher, Sandy Patterson.

Baseball Team

"Batter up!" With these familiar words, the baseball team began its spring warm-up. The team, composed of freshmen through seniors, is hoping to make a trip to Columbus for the baseball tournament. Led by Mr. Andrish, these boys have compiled a good record, and we hope to see them come out on top.

Girls' Sports

These girls, directed by Miss Williams, often appear at basketball games and other public affairs. The flag twirlers march with the band in parades and twirl in formation at the games. The trampoline team and tumbling team appeared in the gym demonstration this spring, at which time they showed good training and lots of practice. These groups are an outstanding addition to the girls sports' department.

Wrestling Team

The art of groaning has been captured by the wrestling team this year under the direction of Mr. Irwin. In addition to its regular schedule of matches, our wrestling team, which is in its second year at Howland has had practice matches with New Castle and with Hickory. They won both of these. Through their work, they have gained valuable experience which should show up in future matches.

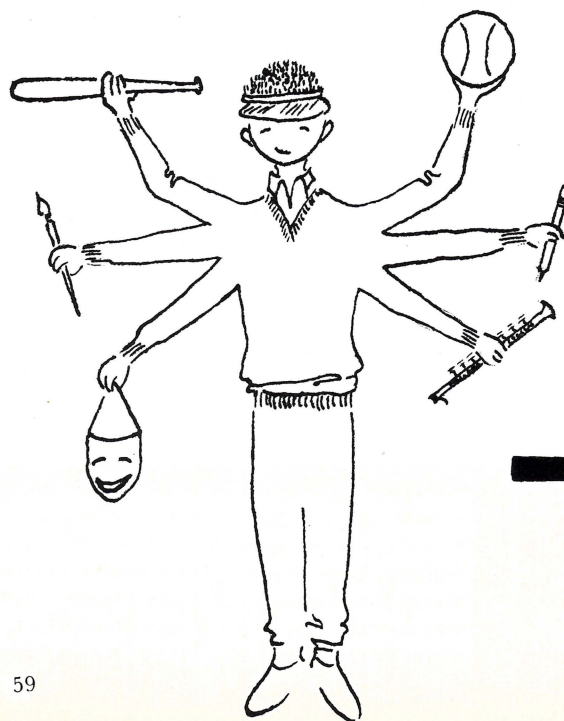

The year's record is as follows:

Burton	28—23
Canton Central Catholic	10—45
Rootstown	13—38

Home-Room Managers

These students are elected by their various home-rooms to supervise the distribution of the TIGER TIMES. They are an invaluable aid to the staff for they eliminate much of the confusion which would ordinarily result from distributing so many newspapers.

National Honor Society

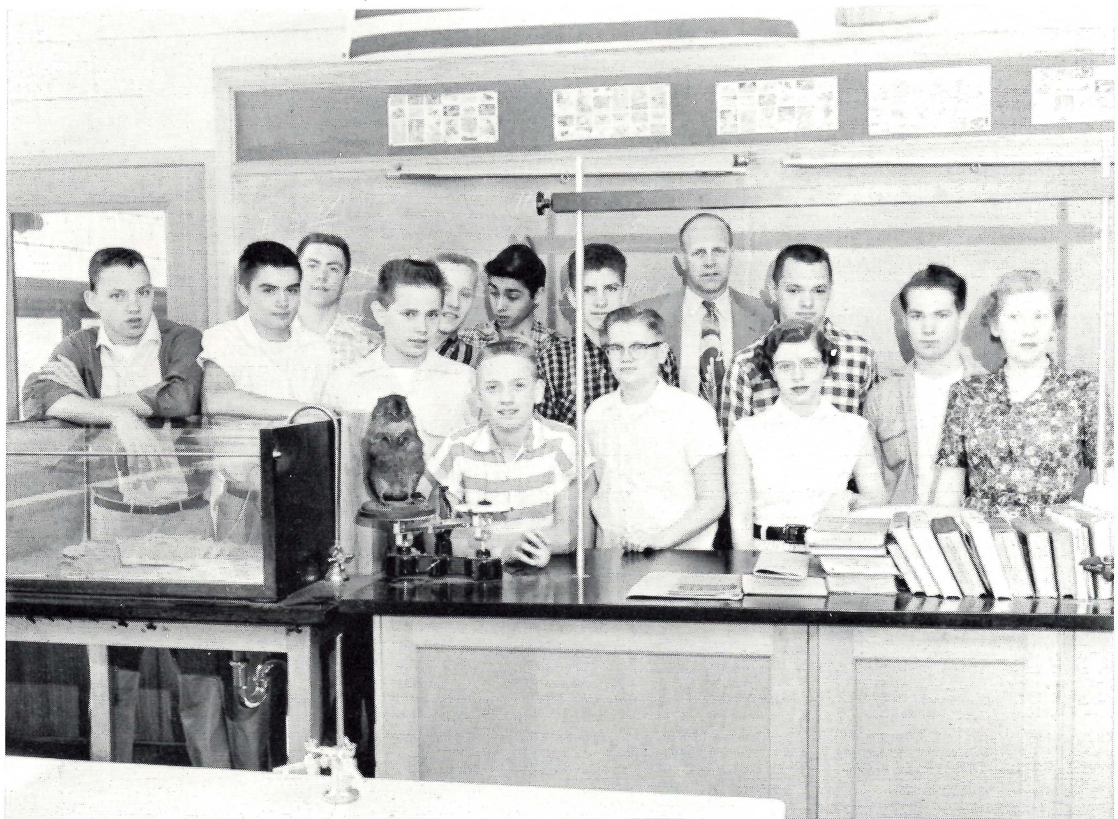

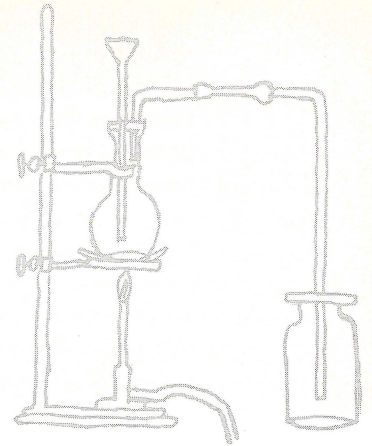

Members of the National Honor Society are chosen by the faculty on the basis of Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service. Eacy year five per cent of the Junior Class and ten per cent of the Senior Class are elected. This year the new members were inducted in an impressive tapping ceremony.

Science Club

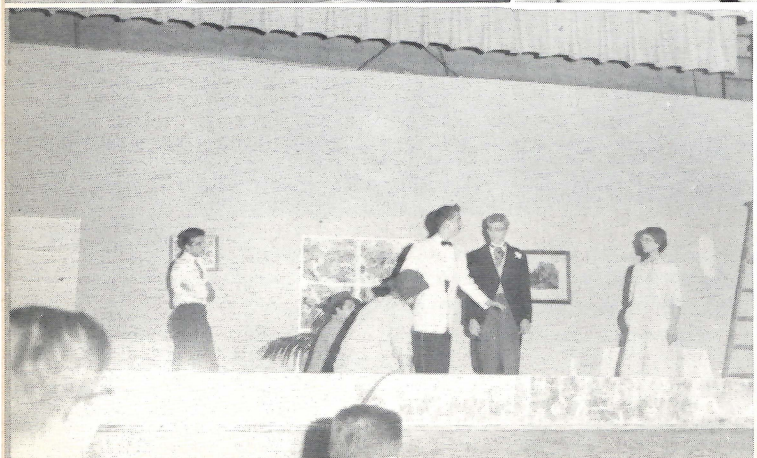

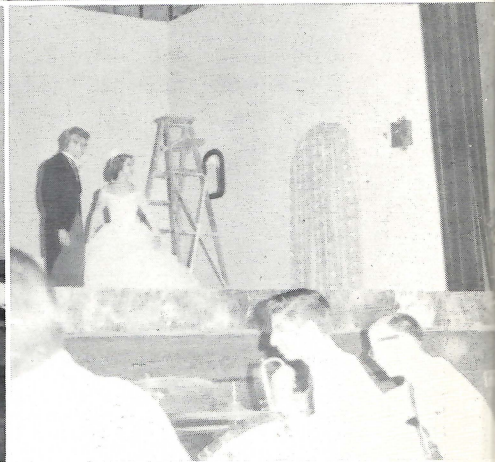

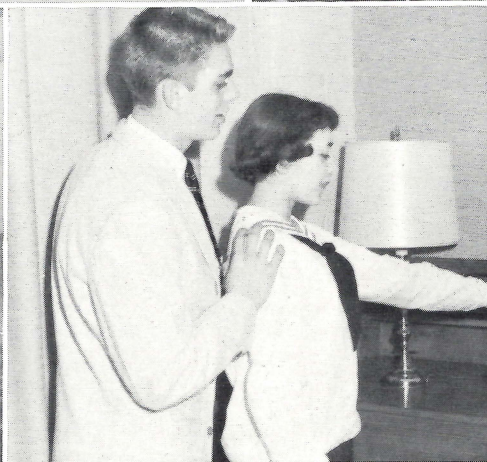

This group, composed of students interested in any branch of science, meets regularly to perform experiments, work on individual projects, and tour interesting factories. This is the club's fourth year.

Senior Play

A small wedding which snowballed into a huge production was the cause of a few gray hairs not only for Father but for the whole family in the Senior Class comedy production, "Father of the Bride." The cast included Mr. Banks, Ron Crawford; Mrs. Banks, Jane Leifer; Kay Banks, Dona Husher; Ben Banks, Denny Wise; Tommy Banks, Dave Wilkoski; Buckley Dunstan, Jim Wilsman; Buzz Taylor, Bob Blessing, Peggy Swift, Marilyn Salak; Delilah, Coriene Berry; Miss Bellamy, Em Ghisea; Mr. Massoula, Dean Booher; Joe, Bob Hoffman; Mrs. Pulitski, Lucinda Hanna; Red, Larry Dirmeyer; Pete, Allen Flint; and Tim's man, Mackey Rodgers.

Scroll Staff

With patience and perseverance as by-words, the 1957 Scroll staff has attempted to produce a book which is a record of the entire year's activities. Aided by Miss Zahariou as advisor and Mr. Kepner, who helped out with the photography, the staff worked diligently during the past year trying to organize the Scroll as the students of Howland want it to be. A special note of thanks goes to all who helped to make this possible.

Junior Play

Investing money from funds for their children's college educations in a seemingly wild real estate venture brings both families' wrath down on the heads of Mr. Blakely and Mr. Hobson. Each tries to outdo the other in making a nuisance of himself to the other family. When the battle smoke clears, we find everyone friends and the college funds reinstated, much to the children's happiness. The cast included: Janet Blakely, Joann Strausbaugh; Keith Hobson, Keith Johnson; Edgar Blakely, Dave Dresner; Cora Blakely, Sue Linton; Larry Hobson, Jerry Mook; Maude Hobson, Carolyn Fisher; Babs Blakely, Carol Lantz; Ricky Hobson, Larry Griffith; Effie, Deanna Liberator; Maggie, Kay Reamensnyder, Mr. Grant, Roger Hatch; and Tony Smellero, Bob Abruzzi.

Tiger Times Staff

Six-page issues, Klub Korner, Party Line, Sports, Junior High section—all these are the products of the Tiger Times staff in the issues of Howland School's newspaper. Put out once a month, the Tiger Times is quite popular with all the students.

Through the efforts of Miss Zahariou, the staff has learned the construction of an eye-catching paper and has worked hard in putting the wide variety of news into each issue. In addition each member made his individual newspaper as a six-weeks' project.

Future Teachers of America

These FTA members do substitute teaching when a teacher is called away during the day and act as hostesses for Career Day and other events which occur during the school year. By doing these things, the girls are receiving excellent training for their chosen professions.

Firemen's Club

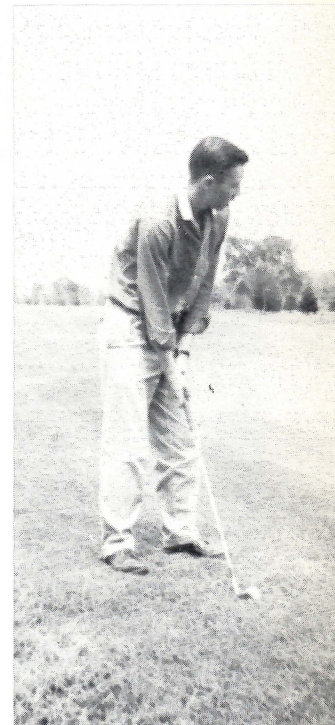

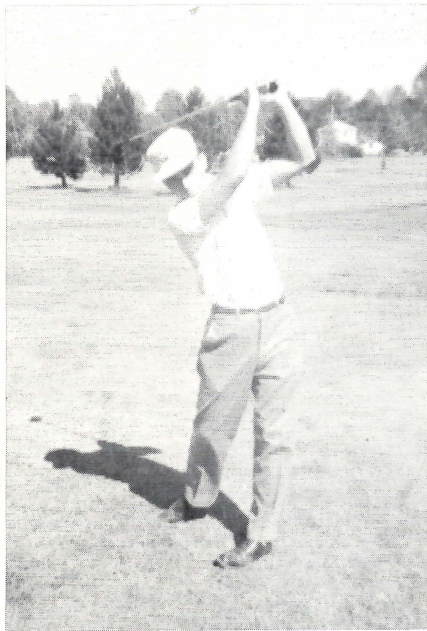

These boys supervise all our fire drills. They check through the school to make sure that everyone is out of the building and time the evacuation. If ever we do have a fire, we can be sure they will be of much assistance in getting everyone to safety.

Golf Team

Led by Ron Hronchek's impressive low-seventy scoring, the golf team has won almost all its matches. They play other teams after school, and each member has more than held his own against members of the opposing teams. We are proud to have them as a part of our sports' department, and Mr. Prokop deserves much credit as a leader.

Bus Drivers

These brave, hardy men are responsible for transporting all the students to and from the school. They also take the basketball team to other schools and provide transportation for many other extra-curricular activities.

Custodians

Armed with brooms, mops, scrubbers, and the like, these men descend on the school each afternoon to try to keep pace with the day's litter. They do a wonderful job of keeping the school shining and ready for visitors.

Jack Butler, Fred Biery, Ray Marsh, Dick Biery, John Barnett.

Cafeteria Aides

These women, whose cooking is excellent, prepare very tasty lunches for the students each day. They have also had such people as the Reverend Mr. Bob Richards and the Illinois State Band seated at their tables. They fill a very necessary part in our school life, and we are glad to have them as our chefs.

LUCINDA HANNA

MARY KEENER

Dear Miss Zahariou:

I am highly honored to be asked to serve as a judge for your yearbook queen—after all how else would I get to look at the pictures of forty lovely girl graduates of Howland School! Send them along anytime and I'll study them with the greatest of pleasure.

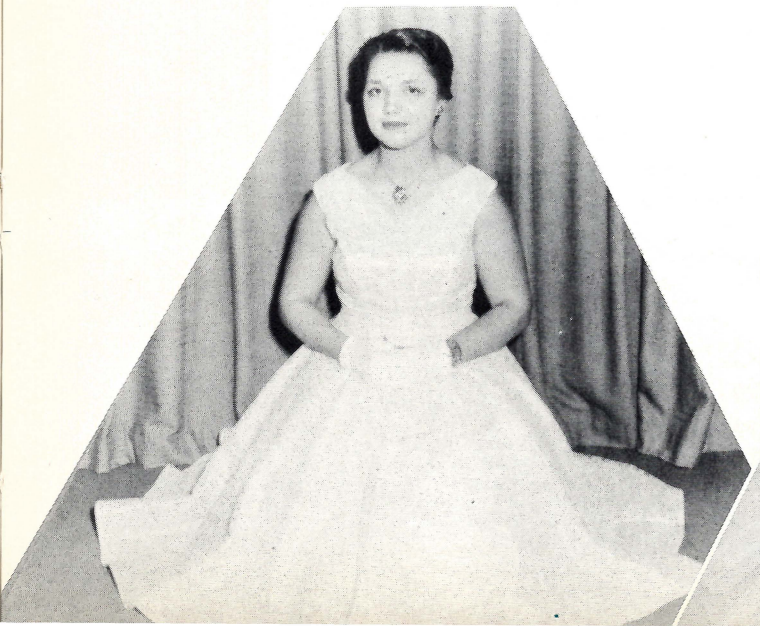

Very truly yours,

Warren Guthrie

RAMONA CAMPANA

The title "Queen of Howland High" was twice bestowed upon pretty Ramona Campana. Here she is pictured accepting the honor of reigning over the Sophomore-Junior-Senior Dance. Garbed in gown and crown and carrying a bouquet of yellow giant mums, the queen is escorted by Tom Williams. Attendants are Anne McMahon and Joann Strausbaugh, escorted by Wayne Weita and Bob McClead.

Two weeks later Ramona was selected to represent Howland in the Warren Halloween Parade in which other county queens also participated.

King of the Twirp Dance

"Knight of the Night" was the title bestowed upon Bruce Williams at the annual Twirp Dance as he was crowned by Sue Linton, vice-president of the Junior Class. Attending the Knight are Larry Griffith, escorted by Pat Love; and Vic Kapcsos, escorted by Helen Stein. The Knight's escort is Marilyn Salak.

Twirp Week, a huge event at Howland is symbolized by the girls assuming the role of the boys. They carry books, open doors, etc., thus making the boys feel very important.

Graduation

Senior Class History

In early September, along with all the underclassmen, close to 100 Seniors returned to the hallowed halls of Howland. We were determined to leave our mark this year, as we thought we would have the run of the school and lots of time to do great things. However, soon after we had got things organized and having elected Ron Crawford, president; Gene Urey, vice-president; Pat Andrella, secretary; and Emilie Ghisea as treasurer of the Senior Class, we chose "Knowledge in youth is wisdom in old age" as our motto, gold and white as our class colors, and bronze mums as our class flower; then we were caught up in the mad rush caused by a combination of chemistry, term papers, Macbeth, and the senior play. We quickly realized that our last year wasn't going to be all play and no work. Soliciting for Scroll ads was fun, and we discovered how easy it was to get out of school every afternoon; but oh! the homework we were missing!

We journeyed to Westminster College with Mrs. Johnson to watch Macbeth grow a few grey hairs as his misdeeds caught up with him once more; and several of us were inspired by this to do a wonderful job in the operetta, "Miss Starlight," which was given by the A Cappella. Now everyone was hunting desperately for a job, because Christmas was coming, and we had presents to buy. This began the first of many requests for money for senior pictures arrived at Christmas time. Some of us were going to give our likenesses as presents. The mad rush of signing pictures for everyone soon occurred, and several of our number have not yet recovered from the severe cases of writer's cramp brought on by this ordeal.

After the Christmas Formal where we danced to the music of Bob Alexander's Orchestra we settled down to a few weeks of well-deserved rest before the end of the semester. However we had forgotten the senior scholarship test! This threw us into a desperate frenzy, because we had all intended to spend at least two months studying for this, and now we would have less than two weeks in which to study. A pall of gloom settled over the senior end of the hall, and silence descended, while everyone studied—at least it looked as if we were studying. Some of us were slowly and silently giving way under the strain. The day of The Test dawned, and each of us hoped he wouldn't be the lowest in the class.

When we emerged from the testroom, we were greeted with the shocking news—finals next week! At this time we lost several members who couldn't take this, too. The survivors found that these finals were fairly easy—the teachers had taken pity on us.

Suddenly we realized how little time we had left. We had time to watch Larry Griffith, Denny Wise, Ron Crawford, and Jim Wilsman play in some thrilling basketball games; and we yelled louder for our team than we had thought humanly possible. Somehow we realized that basketball wouldn't be the same next year, when we returned as alumni to watch the games.

As soon as basketball season ended, the boys began to shy away from the girls; or if you prefer, the girls began to stalk the boys. It was time for the annual Twirp Dance, and the girls were exercising their privilege of asking The Boy. We seniors watched the procedure with amusement until some of us were involved, too. Bruce Williams, escorted by Marilyn Salak, was crowned as "Knight of the Night." After the smoke cleared, we found that several new romances had begun.

Romances or not, we still had to do homework; so we once more became buried in stacks of books while we gave book reports, wrote themes, studied French, and got ready for the scholarship tests in April. Our members who were in band and A Cappella were beginning to complain about the strenuous rehearsals for the contest which were approaching; and almost everyone came to a standstill, much to our teachers' exasperation. Throughout the school, we heard complaints about the lack of studiousness on our part—we just didn't seem to care. As contest time drew near, none of us were in class enough to hear anything, even the complaints. Our work paid in music for we came back with top ratings from the State.

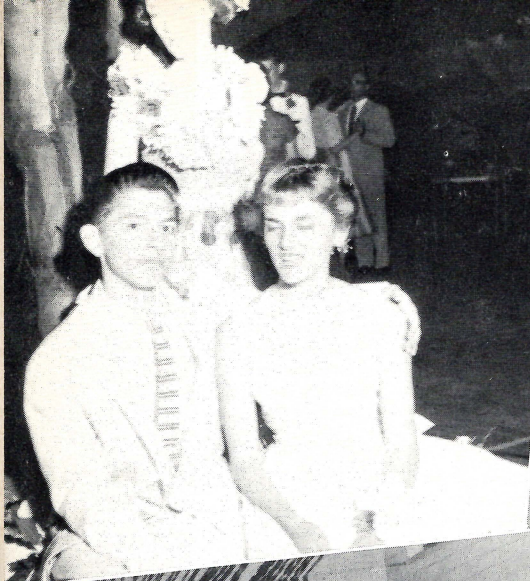

All this time, we had been working on application blanks for collegēs, universities, hospitals, and special training schools. Ten of us—Gene, Jane, Phoebe, Ronnie, Lucinda, Mariellen, Willy, Emilie, Denny, and Larry—were honored with scholarships. Graduation was growing near.

But just as we began to regret having to graduate so soon, we were hit by a wave of final examinations the like of which had never before been seen in Howland. While we were attempting to study for these, we were given the duty of collecting money for Scrolls during homeroom. This robbed us of our only study hall, so we limped along on what we had learned on the rare occasions when we attended class. Luckily, this was enough, so we passed most of our finals and qualified for graduation at long last.

Now we were caught up in the mad rush of announcements, caps and gowns (both for another outlay of green stuff), formals, graduation clothes, presents, thank-you notes, and many more objects too confusing to mention. We danced a little sadly at the Prom and felt just a little nostalgic at baccalaureate; but we recovered in time to enjoy the junior-senior picnic, held on the coldest, wettest day of the year. As commencement began, we all had lumps in our throats, for we realized that this was the last time we would be together at Howland. Everyone looked a little different; and as the ceremony proceeded, we realized that we felt different, too. The lumps disappeared, and we began to feel happy that we had finally made it.

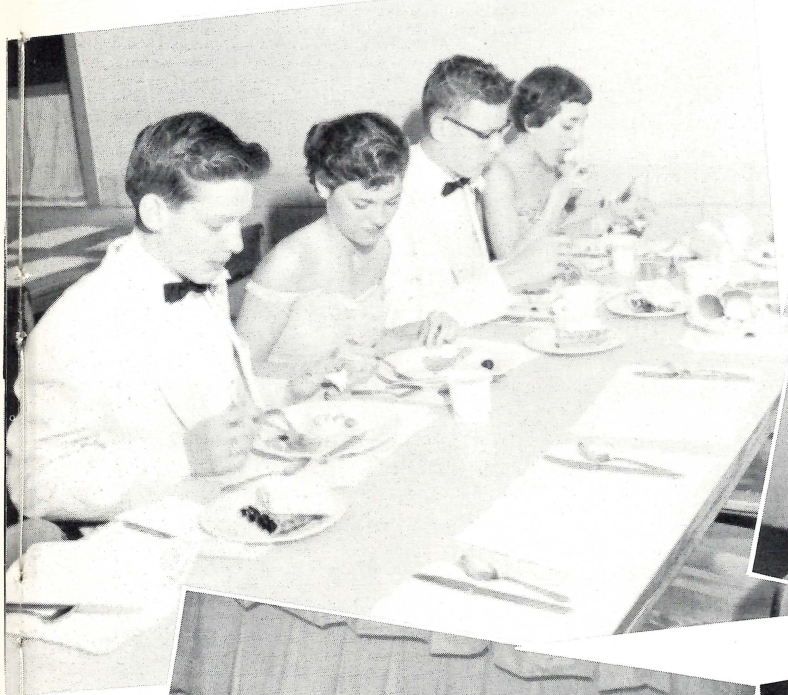

After graduation, with our diplomas safely in hand, we happily planned our trip to Put-in-Bay, while dancing at the Grange Hall. We felt that this would be the perfect climax to a wonderful year. We found that we were correct; and although some of us became a little green around the gills on the boat, we all tremendously enjoyed our last fling as the Senior Class of 1957.

Now we say, "Good-by Howland School, and may all your members continue to be blessed with success. We'll think about you often as we journey on our separate ways. Yes, we are leaving; but our memories will live on."

Seniors, juniors and their guests were entertained under the swaying branches of Hawaiian palms by dancing, eating, hypnosis, and movies at the all night prom held on May 17.

Commencement Near For 93 Seniors

Ronnie Crawford

Student Speakers for tomorrow night are Mariellen Alely and Ronnie Crawford.

Mariellen is a member of National Honor Society, Y-Teens, FTA, Editor of Scroll, Tiger Times Staff, and she teaches piano and accordion in Warren. She has also participated in Latin Club, French Club, and has been a junior play prompter. Mariellen is the holder of a scholarship to Hiram College next year.

Ronnie, also a resident of Howland for twelve years, has won honors for himself and his school not only as a scholar but also as an athlete. Ron is a member of the French Club, President of National Honor Society and senior class, assistant editor of the Scroll, and business manager of the Tiger Times. He has received a scholarship to Heidelberg College.

Mariellen Alely

Reverend Hall Will Address '57 Graduates

Diplomas will be given to 93 seniors tomorrow night, May 22 in the Hanson Memorial Gymnasium. Commencement exercises are scheduled to begin at 8 p.m.

The featured speaker of the evening will be Rev. Lawrence Hall from St. Paul's Episcopal Church in East Cleveland, Ohio. Mariellen Alely and Ronnie Crawford have been elected by the honor students to give orations. Mariellen has chosen the top of "Accomplishments of Youth" while Ronnie will speak on "Medical Progress in Our Lifetime."

Honor student will be seated in the first two rows on the stage. These students have maintained a three point average or better during the four years of high school: Gene Urey, Emilie Ghisea, Jane Leifer, Phyllis Rider, Mariellen Alely, Phoebe Oliphant, Ronald Crawford, Larry Griffith, Edith Scott, Judy Tirkham, Ruby Wilson, Beverly Whitmore, Lucinda Hanna, Dean Booher, Patricia Stevens, Jacqueline Eaton, Janet Gabutti, Marlene Palonder, Betty Hray, Dianne Timko, Eleanor Stoddard, Carol Culver, Joy Hazlett, Dennis Wise, Jo Ann Razum, (Continued on page 4)

spoke on "Experiences in France As An Exchange Teacher."

Studes Twirl Among Palms; Gym Is "Spring In Hawaii"

Last Friday, May 17, was the date of this year's Junior-Senior Prom whose theme was "Spring in Hawaii." An estimated crowd of three hundred, composed of students, parents, and the faculty, turned out to enjoy the festivities and see the gym which was decorated as the Beach at Waikiki.

Colorful murals covered the walls of the gym and stage, and a blue crepe paper ceiling with white clouds served as the sky. The north side of the gym had a frieze of the ocean and murals on the south side were decorated as the beach with grass huts and palm trees. Two real grass huts at the east doors added an authentic and picturesque touch. The stage was decorated as a veranda.

Moving to the cafeteria, the scene was a tropical garden with a rubber tree and palm trees adding to the effect. Diced bamboo, coconut juice, golden dreams, and prey of ruaney delicacies were on the menu.

"Showboat," starring Kathryn Grayson, Howard Keel, and Ava Gardner, was the movie shown at 2:00. This musical of life on a showboat which travels the Mississippi during the Civil War period was released by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Richard Marlow, local hypnotist, headlined the floor show this year again.

Television, games, and dancing to the music of the Neopopolitans were also on the evening's agenda for entertainment.

After a breakfast served at 5:00, the happy couples wound their way home to put the 1957 Junior-Senior Prom in their diaries.

Seniors Splurge On Boat Trip

Two chartered busses full of seniors will leave Howland High School on Friday, May 24 for a trip to Put-In-Bay.

The trip, which will be an all day affair, will begin at 6 a.m. The bus ride from Howland to Sandusky will last three hours. From Sandusky the "former" students will take a chartered boat to Put-In-Bay on Lake Erie.

Sponsors who will accompany the group are Mrs. Hotchkiss, Mr. Kepner, Mrs. Husher, Mrs. Reiser, and Mr. Wilms.

Students in a business administration course at college.

Thirty-one Scholars "Bring Home The Bacon" From Kent Scholarship Contest Last Week

Three first place winners paced the awards given to Howland High School from the Kent State District.

Copping first place honors were Gene Urey in Senior Social Studies, Gina Abruzzi in French I, and David Alely in World History.

Scroll To Feature Queen of Yearbook

The 1957 Scroll Staff has been working diligently to put out their 128-page summer book in August.

Several special features have been added this year. Taking top billing is the "queen of the yearbook" contest. The queen and her court will occupy a two-page spread. Also a special note is the art work found throughout the yearbook. Through the pens of Lucinda Hanna and Phyllis Rider has flowed the ink needed for the many caricatures of clubs and other activities.

In between golf matches, Ronnie Hronehek has managed to snap the many pictures of sports and ads. His sharp, clear pictures will insure good production.

Students will be notified this summer as to the date of the big dance for the distribution of the gold and white yearbooks. The date will also be printed in the Warren paper, so be sure to watch for it.

Others placing are the following: Jim Wilsman second and Jack Tucker fourth in Senior Social Studies; Phoebe Oliphant third, Lucinda Hanna tenth, and Jane Leifer honorable mention in English XII; Judy Sechler 16th in English XI; Elaine Vener seventh, Nola Flickenger 14th, and Pat Love honorable mention in English X; Emilie Ghisea fourth in French II; Joann Strausbaugh ninth in French I; Sylvia Harper second, Sue Hermison also second, and Loraine Crawford honorable mention in Latin II; Judy Moyes 13th, and Billie Spencer and Sandra Schwab honorable mention in Latin I; Jill Wolcott seventh and Bob Sheaver honorable mention in Plain Geometry; John Davis honorable mention in Algebra I; Daven Delhelko 19th in World History; Joe Davis third, Bill Pike sixth and Bill Whittier 16th in General Science; Jack Von Thier 13th and Bud Cross honorable mention in American History; and Ron Crawford honorable mention in Chemistry.

Mrs. Krauss, along with Miss Trimble, presented 67 district and state scholarship certificates to Howland students at the annual awards assembly held in May. Gene Urey, Gina Abruzzi, and David Alely took top honors in the state.

Mr. Grossman of the American Legion is shown awarding pins to essay winners. Ronnie Crawford and Phyllis Rider were named this year's legion winners.

The speech department presented "oscars" for the first time this year. Miss Zahariou awarded the trophies to Jane Leifer for her performance in "Father of the Bride" and Jim Wilsman for his performance in "Time Out For Ginger."

Among the awards presented were those to the baseball team. Coach Andrish is shown with his players.

Located in the new and beautiful medical center, the HOWLAND PHARMACY fills all needs from household items to prescriptions. Jim Marti, druggist at the pharmacy, provides efficient service at all times.

"Shop in one stop" is the motto of ANDREW'S SHOPPING CENTER. It is the place for today's modern shopper who doesn't have the time to go to many stores. Andrew's is located at the corners.

Gas, oil, tires, batteries—all these and many more can be found at BLANK'S SERVICE STATION, found on Route 82, west of Howland Corners.

One of the most modern cleaners around is SUPERIOR DRY CLEANERS, located in Warren. Here it is shown at night when it is attractively lighted.

Don Pack is shown stocking the shelves of PACK'S GENERAL STORE which supplies the needs of many Howland residents. PACK'S is located at the top of the hill.

Fine sides of beef such as these make up the packages of meat produced by the BURNACH PACKING COMPANY, located west of Howland Corners of Route 82.

Records for all tastes can be found at the WARREN MUSIC CENTRE. Sheet music, instruments, accessories, and music instruction are also featured in this store.
